1. Commissioner's Introduction

This report covers my second year as Commissioner for Public Appointments. It has been a period of great uncertainty in Northern Ireland's public sphere given the lack of a functioning Executive and Assembly.

The impact of the political impasse on our public services has been pervasive including on our public appointments system. The optimism that was created in March 2016 when the Northern Ireland Executive announced a public appointments reform initiative, has not been realised. Despite the efforts of Departments the reforms, which included the creation of targets for equal representation of women on public boards, have not had the momentum they could have had with a fully functioning Administration and with Ministerial commitment. Without Ministers to make new public board appointments, Northern Ireland Departments have had to resort to making an unprecedented number of extensions to the tenure of existing Board members and Chairs. In 2016-2017 there were 66 extensions of tenure and 35 reappointments. The fall of the Executive has meant that in 2017/18 we have been notified of 173 extensions and 23 reappointments. Only 17 public appointment processes got underway between April 2017 and March 2018. This situation makes impossible the achievement of the equality targets within the set timeframe of 2020/2021.

Notwithstanding, Departments and CPANI have continued to promote diversity in the new appointment processes for our public boards. CPANI has continued to deliver public appointment workshops the aim of which is to encourage a wider range of people to apply for a public appointment. This year we ran six half-day workshops with a total of sixty participants. CPANI has also promoted a QUB post graduate mentoring scheme which facilitates post graduate students to participate in public board life. There is some evidence, looking at the range of experience and skill sets of individuals applying for our public board posts that awareness of public appointments is extending across an increasingly wide spectrum of people.

I will continue to advocate for the diversity and good governance agendas in our public appointments system, working with Departments and others towards the common goal of excellent public services for Northern Ireland.

I will also continue to vigorously pursue the non-partisan scrutiny role of my office to ensure that our public appointments are made in a fair, transparent way based on merit.

Judena Leslie
Commissioner

Annexes

The Report ends with four annexes

- i. List, from each Government Department, of Bodies to which regulated and unregulated appointments are made
- ii. CPANI Operating Plan 1st April 2018 to 31st March 2019
- iii. Statement of Expenditure
- iv. List of events attended by the Commissioner

3. Vision and Values of CPANI

3.1. Vision

The CPANI vision is that all public appointments are made on merit, in a fair and open manner and that opportunities to serve on the boards of public bodies are open to the widest possible field of candidates.

3.2. Values

The core values of CPANI are those that are also expected of Ministers and their Departments in making public appointments. They are:

- Merit
- Diversity
- Equality of Opportunity
- Openness, Transparency and Independence
- Integrity
- Proportionality
- Respect

4. Role of CPANI

4.1. Legislation

The post of Commissioner was established in 1995 by the 'Commissioner for Public Appointments (Northern Ireland) Order' (the Public Appointments Order), which has been amended on two occasions to take account of the progressive devolution of powers and duties to the Northern Ireland Executive.

4.2. CPANI Mission Statement

- To regulate and monitor the policies and procedures of Ministers and their Departments in making public appointments.
- To ensure that Departments operate systems that allow every citizen who has skills and experience to contribute and who has the motivation and integrity to serve, to put herself/himself forward for appointment.
- To ensure that applicants are treated, throughout the public appointment process, in a manner that is fair, considerate, consistent, open and transparent, with the goal of selecting the best candidates, on merit, for board service.
- To promote good governance including diversity in our public boards.

4.3. What does the Commissioner do?

The Commissioner regulates and monitors the compliance of Departments with the Commissioner's 'Code of Practice for Public Appointments in Northern Ireland' (the Code). She also provides advice and guidance on the process of selection for public appointments and she investigates complaints.

4.4. How does the Commissioner regulate public appointments?

The Order, which can be viewed on the CPANI website on the 'Our Role' page, sets out formally the statutory duties of the Commissioner as:

1. The Commissioner shall in the manner she considers best calculated to promote economy, efficiency and effectiveness in the procedures for making public appointments, exercise her functions with the object of maintaining the principle of selection on merit in relation to public appointments.

2. The Commissioner shall prescribe and publish a Code of Practice on the interpretation and application by Departments of Government on the principle of selection on merit for public appointments and shall adopt and publish from time to time such additional guidance as the Commissioner shall think fit.
3. The Commissioner shall carry out an audit to review the policies and practices of Departments in making public appointments to establish whether the Code of Practice referred to in paragraph 2 is being observed.
4. The Commissioner may require any Department to publish such summary information relating to selection for public appointments as she may specify in writing.
5. The Commissioner may from time to time conduct an inquiry into the policies and practices pursued by a Department in relation to any public appointment or description of any public appointment.
6. The Commissioner shall publish an annual report which shall include -
 - a. information as to the application by Departments of the principle of selection on merit in relation to public appointments and as to the observance by Departments of the Code of Practice, and
 - b. an account of the audit of policies and practices of Departments in making public appointments.

4.5. CPANI Organisation Structure

The Commissioner operates with a team of two officers. In addition a team of around 32 Independent Assessors is managed by the Commissioner. Section 6 of this report deals with Independent Assessors.

5. The Code of Practice

5.1. Introduction

The Public Appointments Order requires the Commissioner to ‘prescribe and publish a Code of Practice on the interpretation and application by Departments of the principle of selection on merit for public appointments’. CPANI regulates and monitors the work of the Departments to ensure they comply with the Code.

5.2. Regulated and Unregulated Bodies

Public appointments can be ‘regulated’ by the Commissioner or ‘unregulated’. Annexe I gives the latest list of public bodies, supplied by the Departments, showing which are regulated and which are unregulated. In October 2016 The Executive Office wrote to the Commissioner to seek her views on a draft Prerogative Order proposing a number of changes to the Public Appointments Order. The changes included bringing a number of new bodies within the remit of CPANI. The Prerogative Order has not yet been made.

6. Independent Assessors

6.1. Role of the Independent Assessor

Independent Assessors play an important part in the public appointment process. They serve on every regulated public appointment recruitment panel, bringing expertise, independence and experience in recruitment matters and on the Commissioner's Code. They also serve on the panels of unregulated appointment processes. They serve as full voting members of the panels and are required to be engaged from the planning stages of the appointment process.

CPANI allocated Independent Assessors to 27 public appointment processes in 2017/18

They help the Department to get the planning and documentation right and to sift and short-list candidates. They take part in interviews. They also jointly approve, with the other panel members, the applicant summaries that go to the Minister recommending candidates suitable for appointment.

Independent Assessors have a duty to challenge the panel and the Department when they identify deviation from the Code and from best-practice, and to refer the problem to the Department and to the Commissioner as necessary.

All Independent Assessors are committed to the merit principle and to fair treatment of candidates. They have open access to the Commissioner and her team to ensure that difficulties encountered by Departments and panels are dealt with promptly and effectively.

6.2. Recruitment of Independent Assessors

In May 2017 CPANI launched a recruitment competition to refresh the Independent Assessor pool. Thanks in part to an extensive outreach programme there were 236 applications for the Independent Assessor posts (140 women applicants / 96 men applicants). The selection panel interviewed 65 applicants over the course of 11 days.

Twenty-five new Independent Assessors were appointed in two tranches, additionally seven existing Independent Assessors were reappointed for a second term having undergone the full selection process. The new team has been trained and is operating well.

It is encouraging to see such a high number of applications for this important role. The varied spread of applicants in terms of gender, age and location highlights the benefits a focused and extensive outreach programme can provide.

In undertaking this competition CPANI strove to achieve the high standards it expects of Departments when undertaking their public appointment processes. CPANI ensured there was regular communication with applicants, a friendly, informative and courteous tone of communication, transparency of the process throughout, and the provision of strong personal feedback to applicants. All of these factors ensured that all applicants were treated with respect throughout regardless of the outcome of their application.

6.3. Independent Assessors - Diversity Champions

The Commissioner has made the policy of increasing diversity on public boards a key priority of her tenure.

The Independent Assessor has an important role to play in promoting this approach and is in a position to encourage recognition, at selection panel level, of the benefits of diversity. The Commissioner has now tasked each Independent Assessor to take on the role of diversity champion in each public appointment process in which he or she is involved. This aspect of the Assessor role is specifically addressed at all training events to ensure all Assessors are adequately prepared for this new role and the Commissioner and team will continue to encourage and assist the Independent Assessors in any way they can.

6.4. Performance of Independent Assessors

After each appointment process, the Department completes a short evaluation, for the Commissioner, of the part played by the Independent Assessor. Any matters of concern are raised, by CPANI, with the Independent Assessor and/or included in subsequent training sessions. Also, the Commissioner regularly meets the officers, from all Departments, who work on public appointments; they have the opportunity to raise matters concerning them, including the performance of Independent Assessors on their selection panels.

7. Public Appointment Activity 2017/18

7.1. Appointments and Reappointments

As the figures in the boxes show, 79 public appointment positions were available for appointment or reappointment during the year.

Department Press Releases showed 23 reappointments in 2017/2018

56 public appointment positions advertised in 2017/2018

7.2. Extensions

Over the year there were a total of 173 extensions of appointment. Extensions should be made only in exceptional circumstances and for a short period. All extensions by Departments are required to be notified to the Commissioner, together with the reason for the extension; a public announcement is also required for all extensions.

The fall of the Executive continues to have an adverse effect on public appointments. Since 01 April 2017, 173 terms of appointment have been extended rather than those positions being filled through open competition. In some cases an extension is not appropriate and the post has remained vacant. Wholesale extensions and vacancies in public appointments are a highly undesirable state of affairs. Departments are now being placed in the difficult position of having to either accept this situation or decide to initiate an appointment process in the expectation that there will be Ministerial engagement at some stage. The Commissioner recognises the exceptional circumstances of the current situation.

7.3. Exceptions to the Code

Departments wishing to depart from any aspect of the Code in a particular appointment process must obtain written permission from the Commissioner to do so. Every case is carefully considered and exceptions are not granted lightly.

Nine exceptions were granted by the Commissioner, in three Departments, in the 2017/2018 year. These are set out in the following table.

Department	Public Body	Nature of exception
DAERA	Agri-Food and Biosciences Institute	Permanent Secretary to make appointments from a merit-ordered reserve list.
DFC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Historic Monuments Council • NI Local Government Officers' Superannuation Committee • Charity Commission • Ulster Supported Employment Limited • Libraries NI 	Permanent Secretary to initiate process in absence of a Minister.
DFE	Northern Regional College	Appointment of a temporary Chair.
DFE	Northern Regional College and South West Regional College	Composite appointment process - single selection panel to assess applications for both Boards.
DFE	NI Screen	Permanent Secretary to initiate process in absence of a Minister.

In addition two exceptions to the Code were not approved by the Commissioner.

Department	Public Body	Nature of exception
DOH	Business Services Organisation	Permanent Secretary made two appointments from a reserve list.
DOH	Western Health and Social Care Trust	Chair and three members serving more than ten years in post.

8. CPANI Activity 2017/18

8.1. Introduction

The continuing 'open-door' approach of CPANI has strengthened existing relationships with Departments and ensures that potential problems with appointment processes are resolved at the earliest opportunity. This approach is more helpful to Departments and ultimately to candidates for appointment. CPANI will continue to offer this service to all who require it.

Commissioner's outreach included speaking at:

- CIPFA Chairs' Forum
- Downpatrick Soroptomist Society
- Health and Social Care non-executive director development day
- Women into Leadership conference
- Launch of CPANI / QUB Graduate mentoring scheme

The Commissioner has continued the CPANI outreach programme engaging with a wide range of organisations and individuals interested in public appointments. This outreach is intended to target currently under-represented groups, as well as people from a wider business, industry and third sector background, to inform them of the opportunities available across the boards of public bodies. This is designed to tackle the problem of under-representation faced by Departments and the boards for which they are responsible.

The Commissioner's policy of making herself and her officials available to organisations, to explain what public appointments are, how to identify opportunities and how to go for them, resulted in many requests for meetings and for the Commissioner to speak at events.

8.2. Public Appointments Workshop

As a means of encouraging a wider range of people to apply for a public appointment the Commissioner has continued to run a series of free, half day workshops that explain:

- what is a public appointment and why you should consider applying;
- what the appointment process entails and how to complete an application;
- how long the process takes and who makes the final decision.

In this reporting year CPANI has delivered six workshops with 60 participants; to date over 185 people have attended this workshop. Feedback from participants has helped CPANI improve the format of the workshop and we are considering further changes such as including mock interviews in order to make the events as useful and relevant as possible. The impact of these workshops in encouraging a wider range of people to apply for public appointments will be measured when new appointment processes get underway.

Information on the workshops can be accessed on the CPANI website - www.publicappointmentsni.org.

8.3. Business Planning

CPANI creates an Operating Plan each year, in which objectives are identified and for which resources are sought. The CPANI team conducts regular reviews of its performance against the plan and takes corrective action. The operating plan can be found at Annexe II of this report.

8.4. Audit and Compliance programme 2017/18

CPANI completed the following audits of public appointment processes during the year. Departments are required to deal with all issues identified. All audits can be viewed in full in the 'Investigations and Compliance' page of the website.

Department	Public Body	Competition	Report Date
DfI	Warrenpoint Harbour Authority	Appointment of two members	June 2017
DfC	Arts Council	Appointment of Chair	August 2018
TEO	Northern Ireland Judicial Appointments Commission	Appointment of two members	January 2018

The audit of the Warrenpoint Harbour Authority highlighted a drop in female representation on the Board following the appointments. Despite being aware that the then current Warrenpoint Harbour Authority suffered from a low level of representation of women on its Board, the efforts made to tackle the lack of diversity were insufficient. The Department and Warrenpoint Harbour Authority should take steps to ensure that future public appointments will attract more applicants. This report identified nineteen instances of ‘less than best practice’ throughout the process for which recommendations were made. One applicant for this appointment process made an unsuccessful claim of discrimination against the then DfI minister to an Industrial Tribunal, this is dealt with in more detail at section 8.5 of this report.

The audit of the Arts Council found that the Department for Communities had conducted a well run appointment process with considerable effort in terms of planning and addressing diversity in evidence throughout.

The audit of the Northern Ireland Judicial Appointments Commission found good work by departmental officials and the selection panel, however breaches of the Code and instances of less than best practice were identified. Some of these were sufficiently significant to leave the Department open to challenge.

8.5. Industrial Tribunal

In this Industrial Tribunal case (Case ref 141/17 dated January 2017) the claimant presented a claim to the tribunal that she had been unlawfully discriminated against on grounds of her sex, contrary to the Sex Discrimination (NI) Order 1976 in relation to her failure to be appointed by the respondents to the position of non-executive Director of Warrenpoint Harbour Authority. The Respondents were the then Minister and the Department for Infrastructure. The tribunal did not uphold the claim. It did, however, express concern about the quality of the appointment process. It stated that it shared concerns identified in the June 2017 CPANI audit report citing nineteen instances of 'less than best practice' relating to this recruitment process.

The tribunal stated that it had no doubt that the recommendations set out in the audit report 'must be fully and properly addressed in any future appointment process by the department.' The tribunal drew particular attention to the need for more 'detailed and accurate summaries prepared for the Minister.'

8.6. Dealing with complaints

The Commissioner has a duty to investigate complaints about public appointment processes. In most cases, she will require the complainant to have referred the complaint, in the first instance, to the Department concerned. If the complainant is dissatisfied with the Department's handling of the complaint, he/she may refer it to the Commissioner for investigation.

Each Department reports, annually, to the Commissioner, details of complaints and challenges received and handled by them. The Departmental reports for 2017/18 show that the Department of Health handled one complaint and eleven challenges, and the Department for the Economy handled one challenge. Nine Departments handled no complaints or challenges.

In the 2017/18 year, one confidential complaint was submitted to the Commissioner for which the Commissioner undertook a detailed investigation. The details are as follows.

Department: The Department of Health

Public Body: The Northern Ireland Fire and Rescue Service

Nature of complaint: The complaint concerned the marking framework designed by the Department, the lack of recorded justification for the selection panel's assessment and the Department's handling of the initial complaint.

Date complaint received by CPANI: 24th January 2018

Outcome: The investigation found four breaches of the Code and failings on the part of the selection panel and the Department.

8.7. The CPANI Website

The website continues to function as a much used source of information on public appointments and on the work of CPANI. It contains information on the role of CPANI, the latest version of the Code and unabridged versions of CPANI reports (the only exception being that complaint reports are published anonymously if the complainant asks for this).

8.8. QUB Graduate Mentoring Scheme

Following an expression of interest from postgraduate research students at Queen's University Belfast the Commissioner met with representatives from the QUB Graduate School with a view to providing a workshop on the public appointments recruitment process, during this meeting it was proposed that a mentoring scheme would provide an excellent partnership opportunity between the Graduate School and relevant departments, facilitated by CPANI. CPANI agreed to initiate a pilot scheme.

The objectives of the scheme are as follows.

- To provide postgraduate research students with an increased knowledge of public governance.
- To increase postgraduate research students' awareness of relevant skills for public sector, committee and management careers.
- To develop links and networks between researchers and public sector departments.
- To increase engagement of the diverse community represented by postgraduate students in the NI public sector.

The scheme launched on 27th April 2017 and paired 17 graduate students with a mentor from a public board. It was envisaged that mentees would have between four and six meetings with their mentor over the course of 12 months, such meetings could potentially coincide with the public board meetings. Following feedback from both mentors and mentees a second scheme is planned with the potential to extend this further.
